CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, and therefore, in his judgment, likely to affect the Sale injuriously.

3. The Purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the Purchase-money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

4. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer’s Expense and Risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the Sale, and the remainder of the Purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold themselves responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can, on any account, be removed during the Sale.

6. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within one day from conclusion of Sale shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this Sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this Sale, without such re-sale, if he thinks fit.

7. We are in no manner connected with the business of the cartage or packing or shipping of purchases, and although we will afford to purchasers every facility for employing careful carriers and packers, we will not hold ourselves responsible for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such services.

The goods will be sold under the management of Bunkio Matsuki.

FOURTH AFTERNOON’S SALE

TUESDAY, MARCH 26th

AT 2.30 O’CLOCK

Note. — This collection of prints formed by me, though it contains a few early pieces, is mostly composed of examples that belong to the most interesting and most creative middle period of Japanese prints from 1765 to 1790. For study as well as convenience I have arranged the catalogue in chronological order and exhibited in the same manner.

460 Moronobu.
Black ink print, group of man-servants in Uyeno Park in cherry flower season. Such large single-sheet prints by Moronobu are very rare. This shows the strength of his middle period. About 1686.

461 Moronobu.
Same set. Man with a boy in Uyeno Temple gate. About 1686.
